GREETINGS

Dear Esteemed Colleagues and Friends,

It is with great excitement and honor that I warmly welcome you to the 2025 APAGE Annual Congress in the dynamic city of Shanghai, China. We look forward to offering a fulfilling experience that blends Shanghai's modern energy with its rich cultural heritage.

APAGE plays a key role in advancing gynecological innovation and research. Breakthroughs like VNOTES and studies such as MITOR have inspired many physicians to pursue new heights. These accomplishments are the result of our APAGE members' and faculty's dedication.

In 2024, APAGE held numerous hands-on workshops on Single-port, NOTES, Reproductive, and Endometriosis, along with webinars in collaboration with hospitals and international societies worldwide. The feedback has been very positive and encouraging.

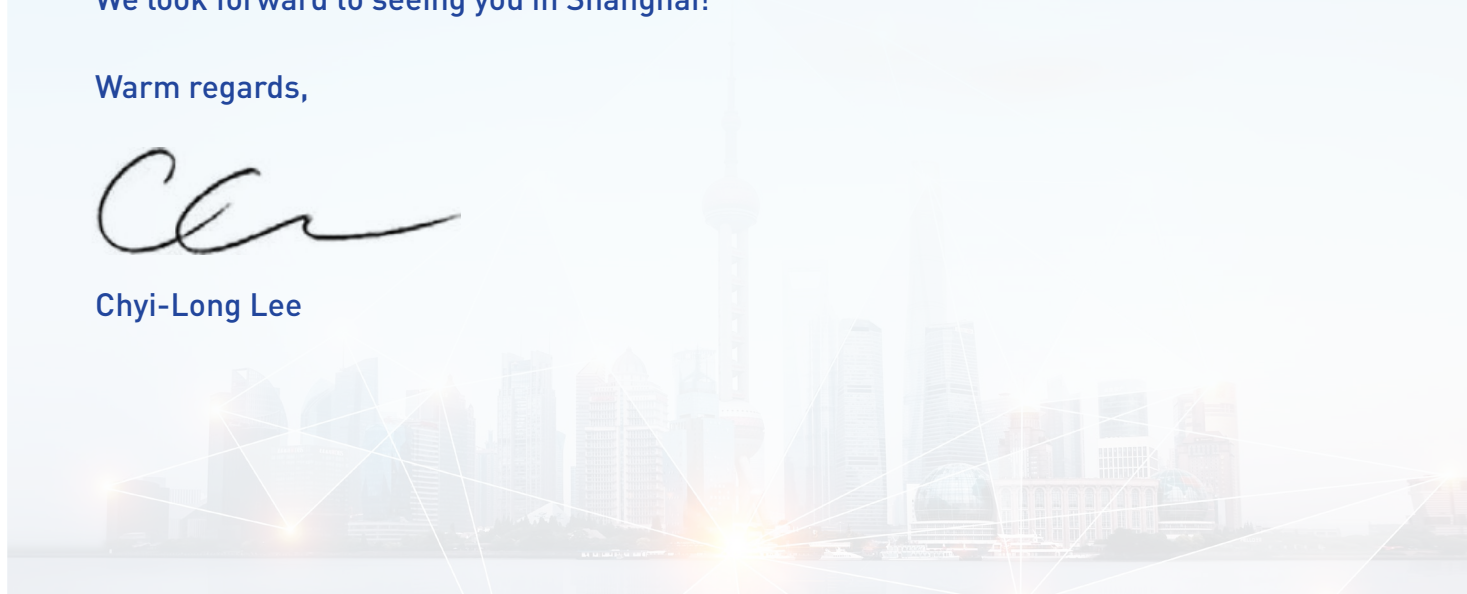

The 2025 APAGE Annual Congress in Shanghai will be an excellent platform for exchanging knowledge, showcasing the latest in minimally invasive and non-invasive gynecologic therapies, and sharing new ideas. Our program will include workshops, keynote lectures, and live surgery demonstrations, focusing on cutting-edge trends and techniques.

Shanghai, a bustling global city, offers an exciting mix of modernity and tradition. From its stunning skyline to its historic sites, we hope you enjoy exploring its many attractions during your visit.

We look forward to seeing you in Shanghai!

Warm regards,

Chyi-Long Lee

GREETINGS

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Asia-Pacific Association for Gynecologic Endoscopy and Minimally Invasive Therapy (APAGE), it is my great honor and privilege to welcome you to the 2025 APAGE Annual Congress, to be held in the vibrant city of Shanghai this September, 5-7, 2025.

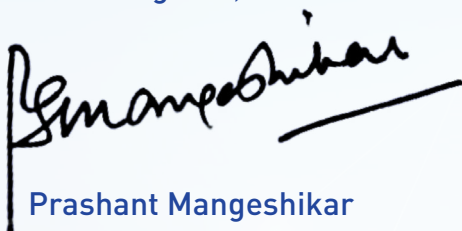

The theme of this year's congress, "Legacy, Innovation, Advancement," reflects our shared commitment to honoring the achievements of the past while embracing the transformative possibilities of the future. Together, we will explore groundbreaking innovations, exchange knowledge, and push the boundaries of advancement in gynecologic endoscopy and minimally invasive therapy.

As a platform for the world's leading experts, researchers, and practitioners, the Annual Congress fosters collaboration and dialogue, ensuring that we continue to improve patient outcomes and set new standards in our field. This year's program promises a diverse array of keynote presentations, cutting-edge workshops, and thought-provoking discussions designed to inspire and empower us all.

Shanghai, a city that seamlessly blends tradition and modernity, offers the perfect backdrop for our gathering. I encourage you to take the time to experience its cultural richness, culinary delights, and architectural marvels while you are here.

Thank you for joining us in celebrating the legacy of our field, driving innovation, and advancing the future of women's health. I look forward to welcoming you personally in Shanghai and to the meaningful exchanges that will shape the future of gynecologic care.

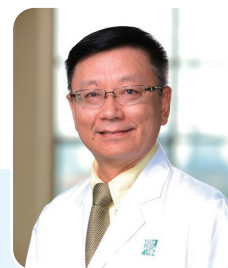

Warm regards,

Prashant Mangeshkar

GREETINGS

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

Good day to you all! It is a great honor and privilege to welcome you to Shanghai for the 2025 APAGE (Asia-Pacific Association for Gynecologic Endoscopy and Minimally Invasive Therapy) Annual Congress.

In recent years, through the joint efforts of gynecologic colleagues in Shanghai, we have made remarkable strides in the field of minimally invasive gynecology, significantly enhancing our international influence. Whether it is breakthroughs in complex surgeries, such as robotic-assisted oncologic procedures, single-port techniques for large uterus resection, minimally invasive surgery for deeply infiltrating endometriosis, or fertility-preserving treatments for high-risk gynecologic malignancies, or the exploration of new possibilities in endoscopic technologies, these achievements have not only improved the health of countless women but also set new benchmarks for advancing medical techniques in gynecology.

The theme of this congress, “Legacy, Innovation, Advancement,” reflects our shared pursuit of progress in the field of minimally invasive gynecology. Through keynote lectures, live demonstrations, and academic discussions, this event highlights the latest developments and future trends in minimally invasive therapy. We firmly believe that the exchange of ideas and experiences will lead to meaningful progress and inspire all participants to achieve even greater milestones. At the same time, we humbly look forward to learning from all of you, whose expertise and innovations continue to motivate us.

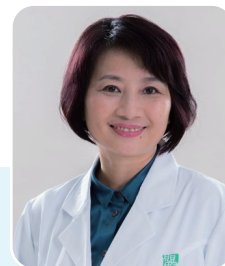

Shanghai, a city where tradition meets modernity, extends its warmest welcome to you. Beyond the academic exchanges, I encourage you to explore the unique charm of this vibrant city and immerse yourself in its rich cultural heritage.

Thank you for your support and participation in this congress. May our time together not only advance academic and clinical practices but also deepen friendships and foster new collaborations.

Wishing the congress great success! Thank you!

Xiaoping Wan

GREETINGS

Distinguished guests, dear colleagues and friends,

On this auspicious occasion, I extend to you my warmest welcome as we gather in the beautiful city of Shanghai for the 2025 APAGE Annual Congress. It is a great honor to host such an assembly of esteemed professionals in the field of gynecological endoscopy and minimally invasive therapy.

The APAGE Annual Congress has always been an essential event for professionals, providing a platform for the exchange of ideas, the sharing of knowledge, and the fostering of collaborations. The congress is anticipated to be an exceptional experience, convening leading experts, scientific researchers, and practitioners from around the world.

A wide range of academic activities will be offered, including inspiring keynote speeches, interactive workshops and discussions. Our collective efforts are about advancing gynecological endoscopy and minimally invasive therapy, improving patient outcomes, and making a positive impact for women around the world.

Finally, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to APAGE, the organizing committee and all those who have made great efforts for the Congress.

Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to Shanghai for the 2025 APAGE Annual Congress! Let us embark on a journey of discovery, learning and collaboration. I believe that we will experience a rich and memorable time here that may leave a lasting impact on all of us.

Thank you, and enjoy the congress!

Jing Sun

*Late Submission will not be accepted.

Abstract Submission

The following information is required for all authors:

- full name
- affiliation (organization/institution, city, country)
- email address
- phone number

Notes

- The submitter must indicate one presenter to present at the congress, who must be one of the listed authors.
- All correspondence regarding the abstract will be directed to the submitter.
- The submitter must consent to the publication of the submitted abstract. Additionally, the submitter is responsible for obtaining consent from all authors prior to completing the submission.
- Please note that all rejected abstracts will be transferred to e-poster.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES-2

Abstract Requirement

Total number of characters for Abstract Title	140 characters
Total number of characters for Abstract Body	1,600 characters
Total number of Authors (first author and co-authors)	10 authors
Total number of Affiliations	5 affiliations

Notes

- All abstracts are required to be written in English.
- All submissions must consist of original work, and the abstract must not have been published or presented elsewhere.

APAGE requires a structured abstract. You have to complete the following segments:

Aims and objective	Begin with a clear, concise statement of the precise objective or question put forth in the study.
Materials, Setting and Methods	Indicate the measurements for the primary study outcomes that were established before data collection began. If the manuscript does not report the planned primary outcomes, clearly state this and provide a reason for their omission. Specify whether the hypothesis being tested was formulated during or after data collection. Additionally, provide explanations for any outcomes or measurements that may be unfamiliar to a general medical audience.
Result	Describe the methods of assessing patients and state the key results; this section must include data, even if preliminary.
Conclusion	State clearly the conclusions and clinical applications that are supported by the data. Advise if additional study is required before this information should be used in clinical settings.

The Bund

Shanghai's The Bund: A Timeless Fusion of History and Modernity.

Nestled along the western bank of the Huangpu River, The Bund (Waitan) stands as one of Shanghai's most iconic landmarks, embodying the city's dramatic blend of East and West, past and future. This 1.5-kilometer waterfront promenade offers a captivating journey through time, where colonial-era architecture meets the futuristic skyline of Pudong.

Historical Elegance

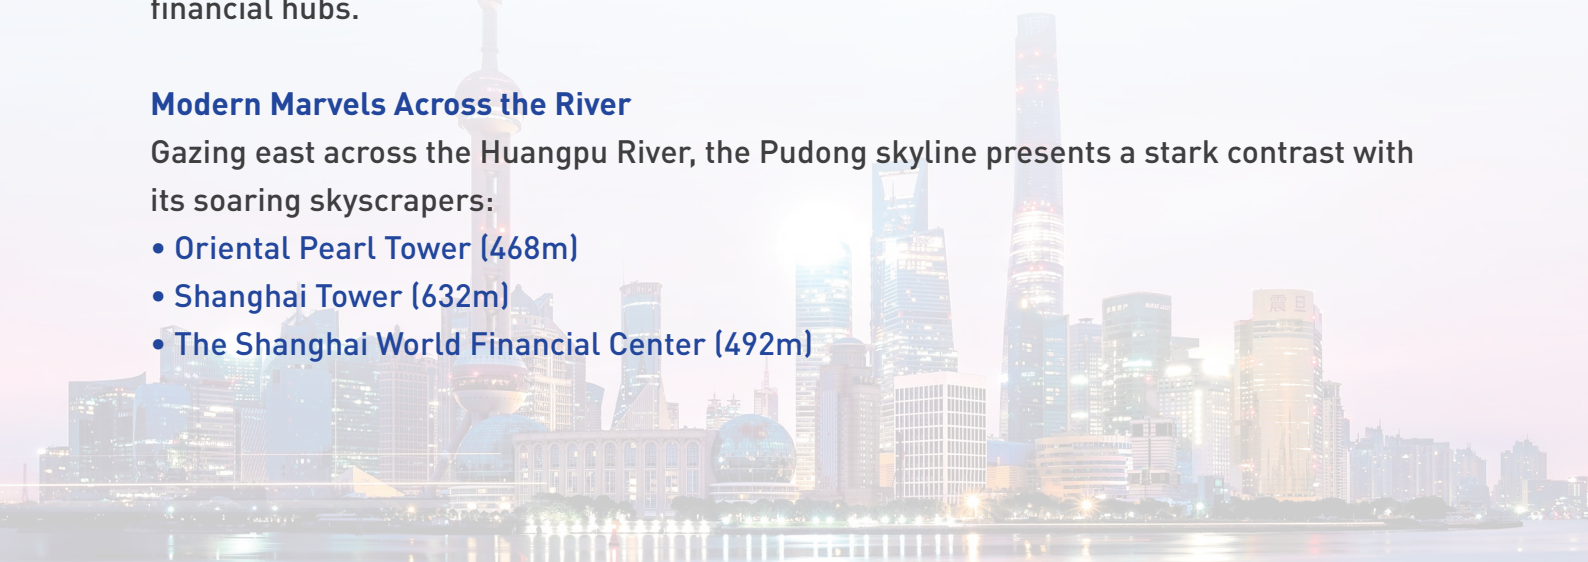

Dating back to the late 19th and early 20th centuries, The Bund was once the financial heart of Asia, housing banks, trading houses, and consulates from around the world. Its 52 Neoclassical, Gothic, and Art Deco buildings form a "museum of international architecture." Key highlights include:

- Customs House (1927): Famous for its clock tower modeled after London's Big Ben.
- Peace Hotel (1929): A jazz-era Art Deco masterpiece with its iconic green pyramid roof.
- HSBC Building (1923): Renowned for its stunning mosaic ceiling depicting global financial hubs.

Modern Marvels Across the River

Gazing east across the Huangpu River, the Pudong skyline presents a stark contrast with its soaring skyscrapers:

- Oriental Pearl Tower (468m)
- Shanghai Tower (632m)
- The Shanghai World Financial Center (492m)

Yu Garden

Yu Garden (Yuyuan Garden) is a classical Jiangnan-style garden in Shanghai, renowned for its Ming Dynasty architecture and cultural heritage. Built in 1559 by Pan Yunduan, a Sichuan official, to honor his parents, its name "Yu" translates to "pleasing one's parents".

History & Features

- Construction: Spanning nearly 20 years, the garden faced financial struggles and wars. After multiple restorations, it reopened in 1987, blending historic pavilions, rockeries, and symbolic designs like the Dragon Walls (featuring three-clawed dragons to avoid imperial conflict).

- Architectural Highlights:

1. Nine-Zigzag Bridge: A winding bridge over a lotus pond, leading to the Mid-Lake Pavilion Teahouse, frequented by dignitaries like Queen Elizabeth II.

2. Exquisite Jade Rock: A 4-meter Taihu stone with 72 holes, celebrated for its water-and-smoke visual effects.

3. Dianchun Hall: Headquarters of the 1853 Small Swords Society uprising, now a museum showcasing revolutionary artifacts.

Nanjing Road Pedestrian Street

1. Location and Overview

Nanjing Road Pedestrian Street, located in Huangpu District, Shanghai, stretches 1,033 meters from Xizang Road (West) to Henan Road (East), with a width of 18–28 meters. Opened in 1999, it is one of China's most iconic commercial hubs and is often called the "No.1 Commercial Street in China".

2. Historical Background

Originally named "Park Lane" in 1845, it was renamed "Nanjing Road" in 1865 by the British concession authorities, commemorating the Treaty of Nanking. The pedestrian section was established in 1999 and underwent modernization in 2019 as part of a national urban renewal initiative.

The Oriental Pearl Tower

The Oriental Pearl Tower in Shanghai, located in the Lujiazui Financial and Trade Zone of Pudong New District, is one of the iconic landmarks of Shanghai. Standing at 468 meters tall, it was completed in 1994 and is the tallest tower in Asia and the third tallest in the world. The tower consists of 11 spheres of varying sizes, symbolizing the poetic imagery of "large and small pearls falling onto a jade plate."

Inside the tower, there are multiple observation decks that visitors can reach via high-speed elevators, offering panoramic views of Shanghai. The most famous observation decks are the main deck at 263 meters and the space capsule at 350 meters.

The Oriental Pearl Tower is not only a tourist attraction but also a broadcasting and television signal transmission center. At night, the tower is illuminated with dazzling lights, making it a stunning sight along the Huangpu River.
